CONNAUGHT PARK JOCKEY CLUB'S MEETING OPENS AT CANADIAN CAPITAL.

Brilliant Assemblage of People Prominent in Society and Politics Welcomes Return of Thor-oughbreds—Bwana Tumbo Wins Cup.

oughbreds—Bwana Tumbo Wins Cup.

Ottawa, Ont., June 16.—Before a brilliant assemblage and under conditions that could not well have been improved upon, the spring meeting of the Connaught Park Jockey Club began today at the picturesque course on the shores of the Ottawa River. A splendid program was provided and a majority of the races furnished keen contests, in which the winners scored by small margins. The horses participating at the meeting are of much better calibre than those that were here last season. The club house contingent were out in force, the laws being well filled with the clite of Ottawa and the surrounding country.

The Duke of Connaught Cup and the Ottawa belectic Railways Steeplechase were provided as attractions and both races proved splendid contests. C. S. Campbell of Montreal furnished the winner of the Connaught Cup in Bwana Tumbo. a horse which in his present form is capable of holding his own with the best racing here. In today's race, Bwana Tumbo dashed to the front soon after the start and, under slight restraint, made his own pace. In the stretch Dynamite made a bid, but could not quite get up. Burns was driving the winner at the end to beat Dynamite a scant length.

Exton, which ran coupled with Ragusa as the Garth entry, won the steeplechase after The African and Promoter had alternated in making the pace. Exton did not get up until after they took the last fence, where he caught and passed Promoter. Tom Horn bolted out of the course at the first jump and Ragusa fell at the eleventh.

The running of the sixth race divided interest with the Connaught Cup. A high-class field of sprinters went to the post in this race and the Hallenbeck stable furnished the favorite in Frederick L. The latter made a brave effort, but lack of condition told in the final drive and Southern Maid beat him a neck. This was the first time that the Hallenbeck colors were seen in public this season. The stable, which is here in charge of Frank M. Taylor, will be campaigned on the Canada hook in the clubhous morning.

Capl. W. F. Presgrave came up from Saratoga to look after Bwana Tumbo. He will remain a couple of days before returning to Montreal to arrange for the shipment of the Clyde racers to Saratoga.

BUTLER JUVENILES WIN TWO RACES.

High Noon Scores at the First Asking and Catalina Accounts For the Fashion Stakes.

Accounts For the Fashion Stakes.

New York, June 16.—The colors of James Butler, which are carried exclusively by two-year-olds purchased from the estate of the late James R. Keene, were conspicuous at Belmont Park today, when the Butler juveniles finished first and second in the Fashion Stakes, for fillies, and High Noon took the opening race of the day. Catalina and Marion H. were the Butler entry in the Fashion Stakes and, after Marion H, had set the pace to the last sixteenth. Catalina came along and passed her stable companion in the last few strides. Marion H. held the remainder safe for second place. The victory of High Noon in the first race was impressive. He led from start to finish and beat some seasoned racers. He is regarded as one of the best two-year-olds shown this year. In today's race he easily held Geo. Roesch safe. In conformation he is a grand-looking youngster and attracted quite a bit of attention from horsemen.

The condensed history of the Fashion Stakes since 1900 is as follows:

able to withstand the winner's rush. Spring Board failed to show his speed at any stage of the journey.

William Garth, who purchased six yearlings at the Osnard sale yesterday, will ship them to his Virginia farm.

Rock View has been assigned top weight for the Brooklyn Handieap, which is to be run at Aqueduct on the opening day. His weight is 128 pounds. John Miller arrived at Belmont Park yesterday with eight yearlings, the property of Mr. Gifford Cochran. They will be re-shipped to Mr. Cochran's farm at Mount Kisco.

Archie Zimmer has sent to Gravesend Caugh Hill, Preston Lynn and a four-year-old colt, a recent purchase of Tom Sharkey's, where they will be rested until the opening of racing at Saratoga.

Jockey J. McCabe was suspended for the rest of the meeting by starter Cassidy for disobedience at the post in the second race.

The Southern Maryland Fair Association, promoters of the Marlboro meeting which came to a close-last Saturday, are making preparations to build a new track at Patuxen, Maryland, in Prince George County, midway between Baltimore and Mashington. It is the intention to build a mile and an eighth track and apply to the Jockey Club the coming fall for the dates which were formerly solicited to the Jamestown Jockey Club at Norfolk, Va.

SELLING PLATERS IN ACTION AT LATONIA.

Day's Racing of Routine Sort and Productive of Success of One Lone Favorite.

Cincinnati, O., June 16,—Routine racing was the order at Latonia this afternoon with no untoward incidents, excepting that in contrast to yesterday's showing, Dark Flower, was the only favorits juvenile, also furnished the winner of the fourth race in which the best field started. In the latter dash he was represented by Huntress, which has done but little racing, and invited scarcely any support except from Jockey Martin's following.

Sie broke forwardly, showed extreme speed and won well in hand on the latter of the choices began in the opener, when khodes, regarded as best in the race, landed third to Malabar and Flossie Crocket. The winner is owned by J. N. Camden and gave much promise last spring, but afterwards raced so poorly that he was gelded. The results were beneficial. Patience was given the call in the second race, but G. W. Carroll, who returned today from Canada and had the mount, appeared to be unable to handle her well and she landed third, Furlong winning well in hand over Galey Slave.

Darf Flower won as if muc the best in her race and capable of keeping pace with the McDowell illy, but just before rounding the first turn Martin appeared to Fave badly interfered with Dengro. The sitewards took this view and received corroboration from Connelly, but on report of patrol judge limically to occurred, that Martin had not interferred with Dengro, and that the cause for that cold tropping back was due to Connelly's action in taking him back, the stewards naturally took judge Ireland's view and refrained from suspending Martin, as they had contemplated.

Star O'Ryan was unlucky to lose in the fifth in which he was by far the best, but succumbed which, under a light impost, showed a much improved performance over her last essay. J. Henry, who had the mount on Star O'Ryan, made the mistake of attempting to get through along the inner rail. Neylon kept him in close quarters and beat favore and particle and the fine of the race, has been troubled with delicate underpinning for some time rail. Neylon kept

WILL BUILD IN NEW LOCATION.

Southern Maryland Fair Association Secures Land for New Track Near Washington.

Baltimore, Md., June 16.—It is the intention of the management of the Marlboro track to commence work at once on a mile track, Plans and estimates have been made and work will be started within a few days. The inaccessibility of the present location and the difficulty of reaching it from Baltimore and Washington have influenced the management to look for more convenient grounds in the county. These have been secured at a point on the Patusent river about twenty-five minutes' ride from Baltimore and the same from Washington.

The new track will be reached by the W. B. & deteric road, and arrangements have been made for quick and convenient train service. The officials of the road claim they can handle the race crowds Just as efficiently and comfortably as the steam railroads, and the electric road will have the further convenience of frequent trains, so that race goers may go and come whenever they please.

The new track will be built on up-to-date lines, and the whole plant will be strictly modern and up to all the requirements of the Jockey Club. The capital will be furnished entirely by local people and the racing will be conducted under the management of local talent. "Maryland for Marylanders" is the slogan of the management.

It is expected that the dates formerly assigned by the Jockey Club to Norfolk will be given to the Southern Maryland Association. In this case the new track will get about fifteen days in the spring before Havre de Grace and Plimlico and the same unmober of days in the fall after the close at Plimlico. These were the same dates formerly given to the shoes of the old Washington course.

PLANS FOR BRITISH COLUMBIA RACING.

The British Columbia Thoroughbred Association will hold a fifty-day meeting at Minorn Park. Vancouver, B. C., from July 11 to and including September 7. A meeting at Victoria will follow. The purse offerings for the Minoru Park meeting will duplicate those of last season.

Winner—B. g, by Fatherless—Eliza Russell (trained by L. Garth).

Went to post at 3:46. At post 2 minutes. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. EXTON was saved close up under slight restraint until in the last turn of the field, then wore PROMOTER down in the last eighth and was going away at the end. PROMOTER fenced well and showed the most speed to the last quarter, then hung on longer than usual in the final drive. KINGCASH raced gamely, but could never get up. RAGUSA fell at the eleventh jump and TOM HORN ran out of the course.

Several streets caved in, engulfing passersby, and immense pits replace some of the finest boulevards in the city.

All up and down the Pacific coast plans are said to be ripening in the Oriental colonies for another revolution in China. The campaign is said to be under the general drection of Dr. Sun Yat Sen, who was first provisional president of the present republic and was mainly responsible for the revolution which overthrew the Manchus, Sun is in exile in Japan, and President Yuan Shi-kai is reported to have offered $1,000,000 for his head.

Three features of the Maxienn situation are giving concern to the Washington administration. The first is a notification by the mediators at Niagara Falls that unless an agreement is reached before the end of the coming week they will cease their efforts to make peace. The second and corrolary to the above is the doubled-barreled deadlock between the American and Huerta delegates. The third report is a report received from a fairly reliable source that General Villa has resigned his command under General Carranza. The three South American mediators have formally advised General Carranza by telegraph that they will not admit his representatives to the conference unless an armistice is declared and internal as well as international plases of the Mexican problem are accepted as the scope of mediation.

Isaac Earnshaw, a noted Australian trainer, is dead, aged fifty-three. In his day he saddled the winners of many important races in that faraway land.

Thomas Fortune Ryan's Stake and Cap has virtually recovered from the effects of a mishap in Kentucky and her trainer expects her to race well in the near future.

Opening day at Overland Park, Denver, was suc-essful beyond the anticipations of the management of the Denver Fair and Racing Association. The ttendance was estimated at 10,000.

The five-year-old American-bred mare Hamburg Belle, by Planudes-Saratoga Belle, won the Adelaide Cup in Australia last month. She was imported into Australia from this country by L. Robertson and one day last year she distinguished herself by winning two races in the same afternoon. Her sire, Planudes, by St. Shaom-Lonely, was also taken to Australia from America by Mr. Robertson, and is located at the Allendale Stock Farm, Mentone, Victoria, A good performer himself. Planudes sired many useful horses in America, and Hamburg Belle's win gives him a good advertisement for the coming season in Australia.

coming season in Australia.

Among the pet aversions of the late I. Earnshaw was the early racing of two-year-olds. He had a decided objection to training youngsters for the spring, and frequently voiced himself to the effect that it would ultimately benefit our bloodstock if there was no racing for horses of less than three years. At different times some of his patrons would have liked to have seen their yearling purchases prepared for the early two-year-old races, but unless he had particularly good reason for believing they were of the "come-carly" order, Earnshaw generally discountenanced that idea. He did prepare some winners of the early races, but as a rule the autumn was the time when two-year-olds from his stable came prominently into notice.—Sydney Ref-9769.

UNUSUAL PRECAUTIONS AT ROYAL ASCOT.

London, Eng., June 16.—Never before were such precautions taken to guard members of the royal family from the suffrageties as were taken today at the Ascot race course. The opening of the leading society race meeting found more than 1,000 London policemen and hundreds of detectives from Scotland Yard assembled on the historic course as re-enforcements for the regular Berkshire county police force, which had been mobilized in full strength. The six-mile route from Windsor Castle to the course was lined all the way by policemen. The militants, in spite of the queen's threat to cancel the rest of the season's social engagements, showed themselves more determined than ever to obtain publicity for their cause by attacking the king.

The arrangements for guarding the entrance to the royal enclosure on the race course were more stringent than ever. Every applicant for a ticket had to be vouched for by some responsible official. The track was closely guarded and there were triple rails to prevent any unauthorized persons from reaching it. Day and night men accompanied by watch does have patrolled the course, and alarm guns have been placed in position around the stands and lawns.

rails to prevent any unauthorized persons from reaching it. Day and night men accompanied by watch dogs have patrolled the course, and alarm guns have been placed in position around the stands and lawns.

A live contingent of resident Americans were among those invited to the royal enclosure. These included Walter Hines Page, the American ambassador and Mrs. Page, with members of the embassy staff; Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, Philip J. Roosevelt, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, and Colonel Edward M. House of Texas, Mrs. John Astor and a number of others.

Prancing on either side of the king's carriage rode Lieutenant Colonel Sir Frederick Ponsonby and Major Oliver Wigram, the royal equerries, attired in the orthodox silk hats, morning coats and dark riding breeches and jack boots, while scarlet-clad grooms escorted a dozen other carriages bearing members of the royal family and the principal court officials and guests from the castle.

For the mere male, a Prince Albert or morning coat, with a silk hat, is absolutely insisted upon for today and Thursday, the two state days. The women who thronged the reserved inclosures sported their newest and most expensive costumes. For them racing is of minor importance compared with the necessity of out-dressing their rivals and friends. The royal inclosure contained everybody who is any-body, when the hoisting of the royal standard indicated that the king and queen had taken their places, and gave the signal for the races to commence. This was Princess Mary's first Ascot.

The racing is nominally controlled by the stewards of the Jockey Club, but as the heath is royal property, and most of the prizes are given by the king, the monarch himself has the last word in everything. He appoints his own stewards, handicappers and which offenders are dealt with by Sir John Dickinson, chief magistrate from Bow Street. Sir John Walcon of the most coveted trophies in Europe, is run. The king from the stands are devoted to the upkeep of the course and the provision of substantial prize

The Gold Vase of the value of two hundred sovereigns and given by King George, in addition to a sweepstakes of twenty sovereigns each, with four hundred sovereigns added, for three-year-olds and upward, at two miles, was won by Lord Derby's three-year-old bay filly, Glorvina, by Desmond—Veneration II., with P. C. Hiekey's three-year-old bay colt, Cincinnatus, by Santoi—Countess Buckingham, second, and E. Hulton's four-year-old bay colt, Thistleton, by Soliman—Fair Jean, third.

The Prince of Wales Stakes of fifty sovereigns each, half forfeit, with one thousand sovereigns added, for three-year-olds, at about a mile and five furlongs, was won by the Duke of Devonshire's chestnut colt, Marten, by Marco—Cheshire Cat, with King George's chestnut colt, Brakespear, by Spearmint—Guineahen, second, and Sir E. Cassell's bay colt, Scipio, by Cicero—Cyme, third.

The Coventry Stakes of ten sovereigns each, with one thousand sovereigns added, for two-year-olds, at five furlongs, was won by W. M. Savill's chestnut filly, Lady Josephine, by Sundridge—Americus Girl, with C. B. Ismay's chestnut colt, Costello, by Marco—Perjury, second, and J. B. Joel's brown filly, Bright, by Sundridge—Doris, third.

AN AMERICAN'S IMPRESSION OF EPSOM.

Touring European race tracks, William Ryan of Chicago, saw Durbar win the Epsom Derby and in a letter home says of features that came under his observation:

observation:

'Epsom is the worst course I ever saw horses raced over. The Derby course is a stiff uphill run for a half mile, then downhill with a big descent to near the finish, with the last sixteenth a stiff ascent. It is a severe test of a horse's quality and gameness, but Durbar, under an excellent and well-timed ride by McGee, never faltered. Although he won by three lengths, Durbar was all out and the slightest mistake would have cost him the race, as those back of him were running great guns at the finish.

singutest injistake would have cost film the face, as those back of 'lm were running great guns at the finish.

"The turn at Tattenham Corner reminds one of the Riverview motordrome, the embankment being so stiff. A horse running six feet from the rail is travelling uphill. Epsom is a natural course 'right on the prairie.' Although enclosed it has not been plowed up or improved in any way in the past fifty years. The seating capacity of the grandstand is entirely inadequate and enormous prices are charged. It costs at least $25 a day to go a racing in first-class style in England.

"In the Oaks Princess Dorrie, favorite at 3 to 1 outlooked her opponents, She was off badly and laid last for a half mile, then gradually picked up the other contenders to win going away in faster time than the Derby was run in. Evansdale, the only Derby contender to start since, won at three-quarters at Hurst Park yesterday in impressive fashion at 5 to 1.

"Sandown Park and Hurst Park are both improvements on Epsom, but do not compare favorably with French courses, which are models of beauty and convenience. The volume of betting in England is enormous and I can now readily understand how a coup by the Gates-Drake combination, carefully engineered by Billy Bissett, netted nearly a million dollars when Royal Flush III. won for them with J. Reiff up."

THIRTY LEADING AMERICAN JOCKEYS.

J. Collins, an apprentice, who is riding on the Canadian circuit, was most successful among American jockeys last week, and comes into the list of the thirty lenders for the first time. Other riders who rode with success last week included Neylon. Walter Taylor, A. Mott, and Buxton. ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

T. J. Mc., Cincinnati, O., and P. P., Chicago. It was a losing venture.
W. G., Evansville, Ind. In race 14808 there was place on each horse in the race, but no show on any.
W. F., Windsor, Ont. Jester was the Hitchcock entry in the race and ran second to Amazon, which had been sold to J. W. Bean prior to the race.
P. A., Cleveland, O. Since Comely won there could be no question so far as she was concerned. It was different as to Encore because the latter ran unplaced, but there was a draw as to his place.

E. F. P., Detroit, Mich. All that is to be printed about Marlboro racing has been printed. Jessie Louise and Bonne Chance raced in Kentucky and all information about them has been published in full. June 5 the Marlboro show figures you enquire about were: Royal Onyx, 2 to 3; Royal Dolly, 1 to 4; Golden Castle, evens; Napa Nick, 2 to 5. The place figures at Douglas Park and Marlboro, June 5, were: Jessie Louise, 1 to 4; Bonne Chance, $1.85 to $1; Golden Castle, 2 to 1; Royal Dolly, 1 to 2; Royal Onyx, 3 to 2. The fact that this newspaper did not print the Marlboro entries should have made it known to you that the meeting would not be reported by telegraph.
